BOARD OF TRUSTEES "INSTANT REPLAY"

No. 8

October 21, 2010

The Board of Trustees met for their regularly scheduled meeting on October 21, 2010, in the Coastline Regional Occupational Program boardroom.

Reports covering September 7, 2010, through September 27, 2010, showed school year 2010-11 ADA at 180.82, with 7.89% of the school year completed. The 2010-2011 School Year ADA projection is 2,292.58.

Amy Castro, Coordinator of Instructional Programs, announced to the board that the Media and Entertainment Technology Program sponsored by Coastline ROP and HBUHSD was a finalist for a Golden Bell Award. The Golden Bell Awards will be presented at the CSBA Educational Conference on December 4, 2010, in San Francisco.

Lisa Knuppel, Coordinator of Instructional Programs, and Javier Espinoza, instructor at CMHS and NHHS, will be participating in the University of California Curriculum Integration Institute in the fall of 2010. The institute will bring together academic and CTE teachers, curriculum experts, and administrators from across the state to design innovative model courses for use statewide. Graduates will learn to independently develop integrated courses, to serve on the UC "Cadre of Experts, and become eligible for training as external UC course reviewers.
